

Large Leaf Coaster

Description

A little larger than a coaster and a little smaller than a doily — this leaf sits in between the two. While the teacups have a coaster of their own, why leave out the teapot? So, treat your teapot with an elegant seating space and show it the love it deserves.

Finishing

- Fasten off
- Weave in ends

Good to do:

- Try to weave in the loose as you crochet along, hiding them in between stitches along the way. This will save time and create a neat look along with giving a professional appearance.
